2023 St. Patrick's Festival Scholarship Pageant

Clothing for Pageant

Interview: A “Sunday or business dress” will be appropriate (please wear panty hoses and heels at the judges request).

Opening group dance routine: This will be your first appearance on stage. We will provide you with a T-shirt at rehearsal. You should have a pair of non-holy blue jeans, white tennis shoes (flat Ked’s style) and white socks. The T-shirts will be worn tucked in and wearing a belt will be your choice.

Meet the Contestants - Business Dress Competition: This is your second appearance on stage. This is an individual appearance where you introduce yourself to the audience. A “Sunday” type dress or business suit with panty hoses will be needed for this portion. You may use the same outfit for both occasions. No strapless dresses, sport-type outfits, sequins or cocktail dresses are allowed for this portion of the Pageant.

Casual Competition: This is your third appearance on stage. This is an individual appearance (no speaking on your part) in casual attire. Casual wear is defined as a reasonable length skirt (not mini-skirt) or full-length trousers | slacks of a non-jeans material combined with a top (such as a dress shirt | blouse, polo, or sweater set) is considered acceptable. An informal dress with appropriate skirt length is also acceptable. We recommend you wear shoes that complement your outfit and that are comfortable. Part of your scoring is on originality. Feel free to spice up your outfit with accessories (scarfs, etc) that once again complement your outfit.

Evening Gown: This is your final appearance on stage. You may wear any long gown of your choice (no belly, navel or excess cleavage shown will be allowed). Do not feel that you must wear green! Wear a color that compliments your appearance. Remember that two stage lights will be on you at all times and you do NOT want them to shine through your dress. Please be sensible in your evening gown choice. The judges usually tend to score lower for dresses that show too much skin, excessively low cut or high slit dresses are discouraged.

The Pilot Club of Dublin wishes to thank you again for your participation in this project and for taking an interest in your community. If you have any questions, please give me a call. You will be expected to adhere to all of the above guidelines. We will strive to have fun as we practice and get ready to present ourselves to Dublin and Laurens County.

Good Luck!
